

The ASMC Washington Chapter is sponsoring the following mini-course at no cost to our members.

MINI-COURSE (FML4451)

Advanced Leadership Skills and Techniques

This mini-course examines key leadership concepts that address leading change and leading people — two important roles for today's DoD financial managers. The session explores the differences between leadership and management, best practices for change management, ethics and value-based leadership, and the role of creativity in leading change and leading people.
